

Couple's trip in goahtis

Get the ultimate nature experience and relax far away from the chores of everyday life. This fabric goahti is located just above the shoreline on the north end of the island, with views of the Sværholdt peninsula and Arctic ocean. Experience wilderness camping with a luxurious twist. You can choose to combine your trip by staying in both of our goahtis, each located on opposite sides of the island, or just stay in one of them.

You'll sleep well here

Nice and bright inside

Practical info and pricing

The RIB rafting trip departs from Repvåg at 6pm and will take about 15 minutes. Olaf will meet you at the old ferry pier and provide you with floatation suits and life vests, and then take you to the island. If you are in need of a parking space for your car, we have free and available spots along the fence of the big blue house with an adjacent red barn.

When you arrive at the island we will provide you with further information about your stay over tea and coffee. If you're staying on the northern end, that's a 60-90-minute walk away, so be mindful about this when choosing which goahti you're staying in during the first night. Both the goahtis are situated right by the water on wooden platforms, and are well-equipped for your stay. The only things you need to bring are clothes and food.

Photo: Erica Haugli

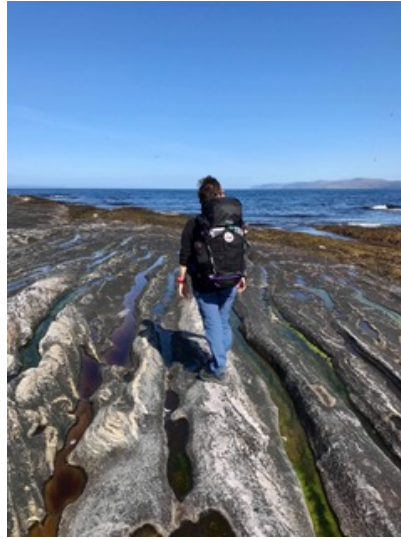

Photo: Aina Nesse

Photo: Erica Haugli

There are great conditions for fishing in the area around the goathi, and also just generally along the shore of the island. Cook your self-caught fish on the fire and enjoy the evening outside.

Visit the highest point of the island: “Peileren” is our name for the highest hill, which the Germans during WWII used as a radio communications station. You can still see some of the remains from when 200 German soldiers were deployed in this very area.

Walk along the shoreline to Kobbevika: visit idyllic Kobbevika and gather all the wild chives you could ever want.

Walk along the shoreline to Hellemolla: see the rock formations and witness the most beautiful sunset our island can offer. If you’re lucky, you’ll even be able to catch a glimpse of the shy seals who enjoy laying on the roches.

Bird watching: experience the birdlife up close. Our island is the home to many species, but the most populous ones are the seabirds. Throughout history, this has been a place of interest for ornithologists and zoologists.

Choose between 3 options

Option 1

Spend two nights – the first in the goathi on the south end where the peer and most of the other buildings are, and the second night on the northern end.

Total price per person: 4000NOK

Option 2

Spend two nights – both of them on the northern end.

Total price per person: 4000NOK

Option 3

Spend three nights – the first in the goahti on the south end, and the second and third on the northern end.

Total price per person: 5000NOK

You can book additional nights on top of the ones presented above, and custom design your stay with us.

All prices include RIB rafting trips to and from Tamsøya departing at Repvåg; accommodation with fresh linens in fully-equipped, high-quality goahtis delivered by Arctic Lavvo; drinking water brought from the mainland, dry birch firewood; and more.

Return from Tamsøya at 5:30pm.

